It is thought by some who have endeav. steadily increasing. ored to find an explanation of the extraordinary course of Gen. Sherman on the occasion referred latures of their respective States, and by leaving him. slavery under the protection of such Governors and Legislatures.

Whatever else, remarks the Chicago Tribune, may be said of this explanation it does certainly answer many of the requirements of the problem which are not otherwise answered. If it be re plied that such a theory involves a doubt as to General Sherman's loyalty, what must be said of ty is a word of obscure meaning to many minds. it to be a perfectly loval act to restore Governor should not turn their guns, which he also gave either event. them, against the American flag. That he deemed it a loyal act is evidenced by the fact that he did it, for no one can regard him as a man of d's loyal intentions. The theory under consideration presumes that the rebellion was already endedtherefore no question of loyalty was involved. It was a coup d' ctat within the Union, which, however unworthy of the fame of General Sherman, was admissable in the loose school of pro-slavery polities. If such was the real meaning of the Sherman Johnston memorandum-if it was predicated, as is assumed by our informants, upon a jealousy of the man who occupied the first position before the proved? country, Gen. Grant would naturally have been restrained from doing any act which would imply that he was discomposed by the manife tation, such as removing General Sherman from the command of the army at Raleigh.

Our practice, not one of experiments, but of twenty years standing, founded on the laws of Nature, with years of experience and evidence to sustain it. Do not tear down, make sick to make well, no harsh treatment, no trifling, no flattering. We know the cause and the remedy needed, no guess work, but knowledge gained by years of experience in the treatment of these diseases exclusively, no encouragement without a prospect. Candid in our opinions, reasonable in our charges, claim not to know everything, or cure everybody, but do chim to reason and common sense. We invite the sick, no matter what their ailment, to call, investigate before they abandon hope, make interrogations and decide for themselves, will cost nothing as consultation is free. This is the seventh year make interrogations and decide for themselves, will cost nothing as consultation is free. This is the seventh year that I have visited LaPorte, and I shall make my visits for years regularly on the same days of the week every eight weeks.
